DEATH

MR. LYTTON HARVEY

On last Friday, November 3, Lytton Harvey passed away at his home near Oakville after a prolonged illness. Born in Appomattox County on March 30, 1884, he was the son of William Clifton and Mildred Walker Harvey. He was a retired farmer and had spent his entire life in this county. In his youth, he united with Red Oak Church, where he was an active member for many years. He participated also in civic and community affairs until he was forced into retirement by failing health.

Mr. Harvey was ill for a number of years, but he bore his suffering and affliction with a true spirit of Christian fortitude, and a patient resignation seldom seen in any one. He was a loving father and husband, a good citizen, a sincere Christian, a man of outstanding moral integrity and one who made friends easily.

On January 3, 1911, he was married to Miss Etta Martin, who survives him along with seven children: J. C., E. W. and W. L. Harvey of Appomattox, H. T. Harvey of Lynchburg, Mrs. Norman Jones of Spout Spring, and Mrs. Charles Martin and Miss Birdie Harvey of Appomattox. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. W. J. Walton of Hampton and a number of grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon at Mt. Comfort Church in the presence of an immense crowd of sympathetic friends and relatives. Rev. W. L. Ayers and Rev. Keith Whitehead were in charge of the service.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Milton Hunter at the organ. The following served as pall bearers: Curry Harvey, Lloyd Doss, George Carson, Carter, James, Doyle, Clayton and Gordon Martin; also H. B. Martin, Jr., and I. N. Martin, Jr. The honorary pall bearers served as flower bearers. Interment followed in the Martin Cemetery.

Mr. Harvey belonged to a family well known in this county for generations, and he had made a place for himself by his upright life, his fair dealings with his fellowmen, and the high ideals he maintained in every phase of living.

Those who loved him will be comforted by the thought:

"Life is ever Lord of Death
And Love can never lose its own".
